may, charged the master with plaintiff's det. A more frivolous and absurd charge was never brought, and had it been left to Sir Harry Parker it would have been disposed of long ago—but the prosecution of the case was frustrated at Peking, and consequently Sir Harry has not been under order thence.

He has consequently kept the unfortunate master in prison for eleven six months, and the case detained the vessel under seizure for the same period. The Mandarin proceeded with the case in this wise—there were certain Chinese witnesses on board the steamer when the occurrence complained of took place, whose testimony would have quashed the charge.
The Mandarin out of these poor people's mouths off by way of intimidating other native witnesses, and so the matter remains until Prince Kung shall have finished his trip. Mr.
